Isn't it great to be in Level 2!

Level 2 provided the opportunity for some of our local businesses to reopen and bring in some much needed cash flow.

It also gave me the opportunity to spend time in Bulls, Taihape and across the district again, which was impossible during lockdown.

I have spent the last few weeks phoning around our businesses seeing how they are and asking if there are areas where Council may help. If we haven't reached out to you and you want to talk to me or any of the councillors, please do so, we are only too happy to visit or speak to you; this can be done in confidence if you prefer.

This week myself and Chief Executive, Peter Beggs, went on site to see progress at the new Bulls Community Centre, it was fantastic to see tradespeople back on site and work proceeding at pace.

It's exciting to see the building take shape. The construction phase is due to be finished within the next seven weeks. Following that there will be a fit-out stage, which involves moving the library, including all the books, to the new premises, exterior decoration work on car park, town square areas.

We acknowledge the Bulls project has had its issues and problems that were then compounded by COVID-19, it has been frustrating at times but the support that the community has given to the new Centre is really appreciated; Bulls and our District will very soon have a fantastic facility which I'm sure we will all be very proud of.

Again I give my personal thanks to everyone involved in our response to COVID-19, especially the staff of our Council. It has been a difficult few months, but we had, and will continue to have, the strength to get through this together.

Mayor Andy Watson

ALIVE AND WELL AT THE BULLS MUSEUM

The little museum that punches above it's weight

Morena everyone, and welcome back to restarting a little normalcy in our lives.

Did you stand at the end of your driveway ANZAC morning along with many other neighbours? I know there were several people around my neck of the woods, many with children, all waving to each other and several had beautiful homemade lanterns. These looked stunning in the dark.

Unfortunately the Blue Cross Medal presentation was postponed this ANZAC day but watch the Friends of Bess page on Facebook for more info on this. Other Bess info came to light though, through the media story with phone calls and emails to the Bulls Museum from a member of the Powles family and a gentleman who is in contact with the McMaster family, the breeder of Bess. Also a phone call from ABC Radio Australia wishing for a phone interview that was go Australia and Pacific wide, on the Tuesday following ANZAC day. Whilst a bit nerve wracking, this went ahead with the Friends of Bess page mentioned along with the Bulls Museum and several other information not least Bess herself. If you are keen to hear this, let me know at the museum and I will forward this on.

The Bulls Museum is now open, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays for the next 4-6 weeks with all Covid 19 protocols in place. Usual hours 10-3pm.

Once we are into level 1, the museum will revert back to fulltime hours 7 days a week.

Don't forget we have now on sale, squash which makes wonderful soup but is equally fabulous roasted. Perhaps you may have a favourite recipe, why not let us know?

Pinecones are ever popular, and we have these, so don't forget "shop" local".

We have available to purchase also the following books;

New Zealand War Animals by Nigel Allsopp
 The History of War Animals, They also served, by Nigel Allsopp
Both books $15each.

Bulls Tower (the "Mushroom tower")

A new reservoir needs to be built in Bulls. The suggested location is the site where the current "mushroom tower" is. This site is designated for this purpose and because it has the required infrastructure, network connections and space, it is seen as the best option.

The Tower was constructed circa 1956-59 in response to the growing number of defence force staff at Ohakea, and the need to provide additional water to meet the demand. It was decommissioned a number of years ago and has remained empty ever since.

It is not possible to use this Tower again as a reservoir, and now that we need to build a new reservoir, on the same site, we need to either earthquake-strengthen the tower or remove it from the site.

Once we construct the new reservoir on the site, the tower will have to be strengthened to a high standard to prevent the tower from damaging critical infrastructure if there was an earthquake. Unfortunately the strengthening of the tower will not alter the remaining life of the concrete structure; the tower will still have to be removed in the future. The cost of earthquake strengthening will be in the vicinity of $200,000.

Alternatively the Tower can be removed, prior to the new reservoir being built, this would be the most cost-effective option as it becomes more difficult once other buildings and structures are built around it. The cost for removal is around $200,000.

Council recognises it is an icon of Bulls, so we will be asking the community for their view on whether to spend money on earthquake strengthening the structure or demolishing it.

Once we have final details Council will come back and ask the Bulls community what their preferred option is.

Pānui Hākinakina/Sports Updates

RANGITIKEI GOLF CLUB

Rangitikei is thrilled to be open again after a long lock down period, where initially greenkeepers were not to do any work on courses and no play. With some pushing to the Government from NZ Golf greenkeepers were given permission to get back to maintaining the course.

Once we were in Level 3 we had to book in every person who came onto the course with full details and when they left. This was a big job to manage but we got through this and it allowed many players to get out and play the sport they love and I might add the weather was superb.

In Level 2 we were able to welcome everyone back and get back to some normality and open the club rooms fully. The course has been maintained magnificently and is in top shape.

Looking forward to welcoming members and the community back to Rangitikei.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S PEN

TERM 2

What a day it was to come back to school, the sun was out, no wind and so many smiles on the faces of children and parents.

The chatter between the kids was just great to see and hear. It was wonderful to hear all the good things that the children got up to over the past 7 weeks. Bike riding, cooking, walking in the hills and spending time with family was just a few of the many highlights. The children seemed genuinely happy to be back at school.

We would like to welcome a number of children to school this week. They have all turned 5 over the lockdown period and were waiting for this day to arrive. Darcy Herdson, Lennox Macaulay and Ezra Tapa have all joined Room 1 as well as Lucian and Esau Lima to the senior rooms. We are so pleased to have you all here with us at Clifton.

Schooling for the coming weeks and or months is certainly going to be slightly different. There will be a big priority put on the well being of staff and students and ensuring that everyone is comfortable to at ease of being back in the presence of others. It certainly was a life changing time for us all.

I would like to commend the pupils as well as the staff for all their hard work both in setting work and the doing of it over this time. There were many lessons learnt around the concept of distance learning. To the parents I want to take my hat off to you and say thank you so much for the many hours that you put in to helping your child with their learning and the tasks that were set. It was probably something that you never thought you would be doing and yet you all did it so well.

May the rest of this term now roll on and we continue to enjoy the wonderful weather that is here at present. Please be aware of those around you and maintain good social distancing when you can. Just remember that even if you are comfortable and at ease with the whole situation the person near you may not be as confident.

Have a good day and stay safe.

Adrian Burn
Clifton School Principal

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S PEN TERM 1

Tēnā koutou katoa,

It is almost June, hasn't the first half of this year been one for the history books! We are really thrilled to be back at school. The tamariki were super excited to see each other and last week - with the help of some crisp and sunny Autumn days, our children made the most of catching up with each other.

Now that we are back, we are doing our best, as the whole of New Zealand is, to develop our new norm and build on as many positives as we can from the time we spent in lockdown.

New norms or not, we are really happy to be in front of our tamariki again. You really miss the humanness of kanohi te kanohi - face to face communication, when it is suddenly taken away from you. As humans are adept at doing, we quickly adapted to new or different ways of communicating with whānau, friends and colleagues, but nothing beats the real thing.

One of the many things I am very grateful for is the support of the other Principals in the Kāhui Ako. Throughout the lockdown period we had regular virtual hui and were able to share experiences, and just be there to listen or talk.

These are the kinds of relationships we sometimes take for granted but that group of leaders was what helped me make difficult decisions and guided me through the most important parts of the mountains of paperwork we received during the toughest weeks of Lockdown.

It reminded me of the importance of our shared journey as school leaders - we are in this to embrace an education that allows for equitable access to better outcomes for all students in the Rangitikei region.

Lockdown was definitely a time of reflection for me and a reminder to count my many blessings.

Ngā manaakitanga,
Kim Gordon
